STATEMENT OF POLICY

All of the Scored Criteria in this tool measure renewal projects’ contribution to improving the San Francisco Continuum of Care’s System Performance by strengthening the overall system of care, through data collection, coordination, prioritization, and improved client outcomes. Certain scoring factors relate to specific HUD System Performance Measures, as enumerated in each factor.

~~For criteria based on performance outcomes data, information is collected from the most recent APRs from calendar year 2014 grant years ending in 2017. For APRs that were due in 2017 through March 2018 and received an extension beyond April 1st, 2017 their deadline, the most recent available APR available before April 1st, 2017 APRs will be pulled from HMIS will be used. Additionally, projects are evaluated based on a minimum household count of 20 households. If the project did not serve 20 households in a one-year period, the scores each scoring factor from Section 1 will be compared to the scores average scores from the three prior NOFA competitions. The average score from the three years will be calculated, compared to the current score. If the average score is higher, the scoring factor will be reviewed by panelists. Panelists. The Priority Panel will assign them or may change those scores to match the higher score to the agency averages based on their discretion. data from prior APRs will be added to recent APR data until the 20 household minimum is met (up to a maximum of three APRs).~~

Item	Maximum Available Score
1 Program Description	23
1a Program design includes provision of appropriate supportive services and type, scale, and location of the supportive services fit the needs of the program participants and the mode of transportation to those services. Program participants are helped to obtain and remain in permanent housing in a manner that fits their needs.	10
1b Housing where participants will reside is fully described, accessible and appropriate to the program design proposed, and type, scale, and location of the housing fit the needs of the program participants.	4
1c Linkages to other services or agencies are described.	4
1d Program will use a “housing first” approach, offering assistance without preconditions (such as sobriety) and rapid placement/stabilization in permanent housing.	5
2 Mainstream Resources	5
2a Program has policies and procedures that screen all clients for eligibility for mainstream resources and assist them in accessing mainstream resources, and the specific plan for ensuring clients will be individually assisted to obtain the benefits of the mainstream health, social, and employment programs for which they are eligible to apply meets the needs of the program participants. Participants are assisted to both increase their incomes and live independently using mainstream housing and service programs in a manner that fits their needs.	3
2b Program conducts or provides access to training for staff on available mainstream resources for which clients may qualify.	2
