TAY Flexible Housing Subsidy Pool

Issue Date: June 3, 2022

Family Flexible Housing Subsidy Pool

- Provides a permanent rental subsidy for a unit within the private rental market
- Tenants pay 30 percent of their income towards rent
- Undocumented families, doubled up families, and asylum seekers are among the subpopulations eligible for the FHSP for Families
- HSH expects to fund 88 ongoing family Flexible Housing Subsidy Pool subsidies in FY22-23 and 77 in FY23-24 for a total of 165.

Family Housing Ladder

- Housing Ladder offers opportunities for residents of Permanent Supportive Housing (PSH) to move on from settings with intensive supportive services to more independent living with an ongoing rental subsidy. Thereby freeing up housing opportunities for households in need of the enriched supportive services that are available within PSH.
- Households are housed in units in the private rental market and pay 30 percent of their income toward rent
- HSH expects to fund a total of 70 ongoing slots for the family Housing Ladder program
  - 58 placements in FY2223 and an additional 12 placements in FY2324

TAY Flexible Housing Subsidy Pool

- Provides a permanent rental subsidy for a unit within the private rental market
- Tenants pay 30 percent of their income towards rent
- HSH encourages a shared housing component, but it is not required
- HSH is expected to fund 50 ongoing TAY Flexible Housing Subsidy Pool subsidies in FY22-23
- Eligibility
  - Must be between the age of 18-29, with no minor children
